To whom it may concern

This is to certify that since 2019 Mr. Fotis Filippopoulos has participated in the MIT EF CEE acceleration program as a judge, volunteering in verifying applications of technological startups in two editions per year.

Mr. Fotis Filippopoulos evaluated dozens of applications submitted on our platform, sharing his time, experience and knowledge. Thanks to his immense help young entrepreneurs gained feedback and opportunity to develop their business.

We are deeply grateful for his valuable contribution and tremendous support which brought high value to the whole competition.
